Dr. Lin Lin
Childhood/Early Childhood Education Department
SUNY Cortland

Dear Dr. Lin:

I am pleased to report that you have been recommended by me to receive a discretionary salary increase for your meritorious contributions during the 2010-2011 academic year. This recommendation has been based on the DSI policies outlined in the April 21, 2011 memorandum from President Erik Bitterbaum. My recommendation took into consideration the materials you submitted, the recommendation of your chair and especially the funds available this year for DSI recognition. Most significantly, this recommendation acknowledges your work and serves as a material indicator of the School's appreciation of your research, teaching and service contributions.

Should you wish to appeal this recommendation, you may direct your appeal to the Provost within 10 days after receipt of this letter, but by no later than Monday, September 12, 2011. I wish you the very best in your continued scholarly endeavors, and I look forward to your future contributions to the life of our academic community.

Appreciatively,

John Cottone
Interim Dean

PC: Dr. Mark Prus, Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs
