

Reform + Revolution = Reforlution

Egypt literacy rate is 75% women 58%

Tunisia 76% women 24%

Morocco

Why wasn't Morocco shaken as much as the rest of the Middle Eastern countries? People have some degree of freedom of speech. King's reforms in recent years.

Urbanization outpassed industrialization

Expectation of the masses couldn't be achieved.

Social confusion social stagnation and social riot

King Hassan II, father III, his new reforms, 1999 New King

Corruption unemployment, poor political representation absence of middle class feb. 20 erupted

Political, not a call for a new regime Day of Dignity The will not call for a change

March 9, 2011, King Hassan speech promised to take reforms. Gave more power to prime minister constitutional monarchy