

I would like to nominate these three students for the Senior Excellence Award:

1. Heather Schowe                      EDD    4.00

Heather Schowe is my advisee and I taught her in EDU 378. She takes up all her responsibilities as a student and has a clear goal about her teaching profession. She demonstrated excellent professional dispositions and has a high level of global awareness. She will complete part of her student teaching in Australia.

2. Doreen Nieves                      EDD    4.08

Doreen Nieves is my advisee and I am teaching her in EDU 480. Among my advisees, she is one of the few who are very organized and responsible for her own learning. She demonstrated excellent professional dispositions and showed a high level of commitment to teaching.

3. Cindy Nelson                      EDE    3.86

Cindy Nelson is my advisee. As a non-traditional student, Cindy has high expectations of her own learning and a clear goal for her profession as an early childhood educator. A hard worker, she excels in everything she does with the greatest efforts. Her spirit in life-long learning is an inspiration to me and all other students.
