Please join us for a reception
celebrating the inclusion of Bill Griffen's portrait in the Americans Who Tell the Truth Project

March 7, 7:00 pm
Dowd Gallery
9 Main Street, 3rd Floor
Cortland, NY

Photograph by Bob Ellis.

Bill Griffen graduated from SUNY Cortland in 1950 and taught at his alma mater for 51 years. He influenced thousands of students through both his classes in the Foundations of Education and his political activism. A portrait of Bill is among 28 in the Americans Who Tell the Truth exhibition on view through March 9 at the Dowd and Beard Galleries.

Partial funding provided by the Institute for Civic Engagement, The Cortland Fund, Cortland College Foundation, Middle East & North Africa Programs at the Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs at Syracuse University, Center for Peace, Ethics, and Social Justice, Haines Fund, and an Auxiliary Services Corporation Small Grant.
