主题: receipt of reviews

Dear Dr. Lin:

Social Studies Research and Practice Has received the reviews of MS 06221. The key points of the review follow. Based on the reviews, the manuscript is accepted for Volume IV, Issue 3 (November, 2009). Your submission is much appreciated.

- The idea of multiple perspectives is just essential to the social studies and this lesson has a focus on a war and time period that teachers often speed through.
- The author provided excellent background material for the lesson and very complete directions for use. This could be used by teachers at any experience level.
- The writing was very clear, easy to read and well organized.
