

SOCIAL STUDIES RESEARCH AND PRACTICE

Dear Dr. Lin:

I am writing to thank you for your thoughtful review of Manuscript 06265. Your remarks have been very helpful to us as we consider whether to include this manuscript or not in Social Studies Research and Practice.

We hope you enjoyed the review process and that you might be willing to assist us again. We consider that the surest way for our journal to sustain and improve its intellectual standing and readership is for each manuscript submitted to receive timely and thorough reviews from the author's own peers.

So, thank you again for your part in helping us in the editorial process and in giving the author the kind of feedback indispensable for ongoing scholarly discourse.

Sincerely yours,

Cynthia Szymanski Sunal
Executive Editor
