Lin Lin – Fall 2010

COMMENTS:

- The professor's directions were very unclear and when there was a misunderstanding, she thinks you are stupid for not understanding. I know we are adults and should do our assignments, but she posts things on e-learning without any warning. I feel my tuition is paying for an online class with no instruction. One of the least effective teachers I have had.
- Quizzes were hard and annoying. I did not do well on them even though I did all the readings.
- I really enjoyed and benefitted from the movie "Bullied."
- Lin Lin tried hard and the effort was made but sometimes her lessons were all over the place. She rushed topics and sometimes connections were just not made. I did gain something from the class but would have liked to feel more confident in teaching social studies.
- Lin Lin was a wonderful teacher but the assignments in Taskstream/modules were complex and often times confusing. I had a hard time making connections from class to class on what we were learning.
- Grades were not fair. Quizzes were graded so difficultly but homework was very easy.
- Lin Lin was all over the place.
