On December 1, 2009, I received a letter from Career Services together with 12 postcards with names of graduates who identified me as one of the three faculty members who influenced them the most during their years in Cortland. I feel truly grateful getting these cards and getting the recognition from the students.

Here is the letter.

	Dear Professor Lin Lin:
	As the end of another semester draws near, it is my pleasure to send you a welcome reminder of your influence on students' lives.
	The Class of 2008 Grad Survey has recently been completed and distributed electronically to the President's Cabinet and department chairs. The survey contains information such as graduates' satisfaction with their advisement and major department faculty, as well as their current employment status and salaries. Within the survey, graduates are also asked to list "up to three individuals who greatly influenced you while you were at Cortland."
P.	I am pleased to inform you that you were mentioned among the responses from our 2008 graduates. Enclosed is a congratulatory postcard from each student who identified you on the survey. Your significant contributions to our students do not go unrecognized.
	Again, on behalf of those graduates who have listed you as greatly impacting their education, thank you for your dedication and professionalism.
	If you have any questions or comments about the Grad Survey or would like an electronic copy of the survey, please call Career Services and we will gladly send you a copy.
