Hi, Mary.

I would like to meet with him. Here is my home phone number 607-565-1224. Please feel free to share with Prof. Wei or email me. At least I can invite him to dinner during this holiday season or take him shopping if necessary.

Thank you very much for letting me know.

主题: visiting scholar from China

Dear Hongli and Lin,

I hope this finds you well.

I'm writing to let you know that a scholar from China will arrive today who will be here through May through SUNY Cortland's program with Beijing Teacher Training Center for Higher Education (BTTCHC). His name is Prof. Jianfan Wei. He was supposed to arrive on December 1, but due to visa delays, arrived last night. I encouraged him to arrive after the holidays, out of a concern that he would feel isolated, but his institution preferred that he come as soon as possible, and he said he would use the quiet time to prepare for the semester.

I will be picking up Prof. Wei in Syracuse today and will do all I can to help him settle in to his apartment on campus, go shopping, etc., but I was wondering if you would be interested in meeting him over the next couple of weeks for coffee or lunch. I will be coming to campus for much of the next few weeks, and look forward to socializing with him when I can, but I thought he might enjoy meeting others socially, too. I contacted Luo Zhu, who was instrumental in setting up our agreement with BTTCHC, but I heard that he is out of the country. If you or anyone you know might be interested in meeting him, please let me know.

Many thanks, and warm wishes for happy holidays!

Mary
