Dear Kim,

I have reviewed the department Course Teaching Evaluations (CTEs) for the Spring 2006 semester. This letter is to congratulate you on the excellent teaching evaluations you received this semester.

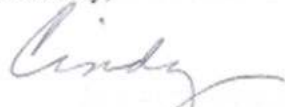

Our department has high standards, and we are understandably proud of the rigor and excellence in teaching demonstrated in our courses. In the Spring 2006 semester, the departmental CTE adjusted average mean was 4.57, a high standard which your performance exceeded.

You have made a wonderful contribution to the strong reputation of our department, and more importantly, to students' educational experiences as you modeled thoughtful, invested, and well-prepared teaching.

I enjoyed reading the comments students made regarding your areas of strength, your personal investment in their success, caring attitude, and rigorous standards for your class. Such comments reflect the essence of our efforts as teacher educators.

Best wishes for your continued success as a teaching leader in our department.

Sincerely,

Cynthia J. Benton, Chair
