Kimberly Rombach – Spring 2007

COMMENTS:

- I'm not shy about work, but this course is very time consuming. Kim is challenging and an excellent influence on my teaching career. The videotaped lesson is very valuable.
- I felt that this class was very intellectually challenging and stretched me to accomplish a large amount of high quality work. It was an excellent class and definitely an enhancement to my education.
- This class was very helpful in getting me to critique my own teaching. I learned a lot and I really appreciated the time the professor put into developing the assignments.
- Kim is an extremely effective teacher. She makes us work hard and challenges our perceptions. Great instructor.
- This course challenged me to work harder than ever before. Kim is a tough but extremely effective instructor. One of my favorite professors in this MST program.
- Thank you Kim. See you this summer.
- Kim was a wonderful professor. She has been very supportive throughout the semester. She is very understanding!
